RSSL Pharma Training Course Calendar 2009

RSSL Pharma Training:

Our training courses are carefully designed to ensure maximum value to those attending. Courses are workshop style, highly interactive and led by tutors with subject matter expertise. Courses are held primarily at our dedicated training facility in Reading, Berkshire, UK, although courses may also be held at other locations.

In-House Training At Your Site:

Courses can be presented at your site. In-house training offers a cost effective way of accommodating larger numbers of delegates from one organisation. The courses can be tailored to suit your specific needs. To discuss the advantages of in-house training please contact us for further details.
